The Student Ambassador & Recruitment Team

The Richard Bland College Student Ambassador and Recruitment Team is an organization of freshman and sophomores founded in the fall of 2001. The organization serves as a liaison to current students, university officials, prospective students and the general public. The College's student dignitaries are comprised of individuals representing a myriad of backgrounds and interests. Student Ambassadors and Recruiters are an elite group who work to advocate the college and to help build and sustain the spirit and esteem of R.B.C. They are a group of energetic students with exceptional leadership and communication skills. The team helps out on campus and is dedicated to serving in the community.
