Book Donations to the Library in Tribute of Someone Special

Please make a check for $30 (minimum) payable to the RBC Library and write "book tribute" in the memo line.

Complete this form and submit it along with your check.

What the library will do....

- A book appropriate for the library collection and relevant to the interests of your special person will be added to the library collection.
- You and your special person will be named in the book's catalog record; that catalog record can be searched and viewed online through LION which is available from the library web page.
- You and your special person will be named in a typed gift plate placed within the book.
- You and your special person will be mentioned in an upcoming "New Books in Library" email message sent to the entire College community.
