

Anna Golotina

Student Library Assistant

Anna is from Russia, Kursk. She came to the United States last year as an exchange student for her senior high school year. She attended West End Christian School in Hopewell and graduated there third in her class. She returned to Russia to visit her family but soon returned to America for the Spring Semester 2007 to attend Richard Bland College. She is majoring in psychology and pre-law and would love to become an international lawyer.

Her hobbies are traveling and meeting new people, learning languages. Russian is her native language but she has taken English for 9 years, German for 4 years and Spanish for 1 year. She enjoys dancing, singing, reading, and listening to Rock Music.

Anna says that “I love it here at Richard Bland and all the staff here seem very nice and encouraging. I think this college is a great start for me in higher education.”

LIBRARY LOVERS' MONTH
@yourlibrary

How to Love your Library Month Proclamation

WHEREAS, the RBC library provides access to information and serves as a center for lifelong learning;

WHEREAS, the RBC library makes information as accessible as possible with reference librarians, print and electronic resources, and instructional classes for students;

WHEREAS, the RBC library offers available online resources such as MELIP, the eBooks, and EVA databases;

WHEREAS, the RBC library collects and contains thousands of books and audiovisual materials;

WHEREAS, the RBC library web page serves as a gateway to library services and resources;

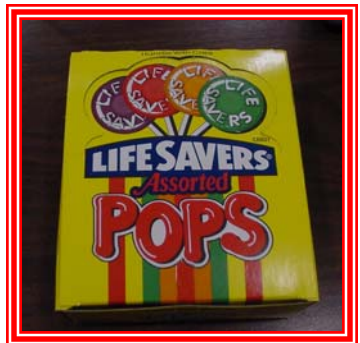

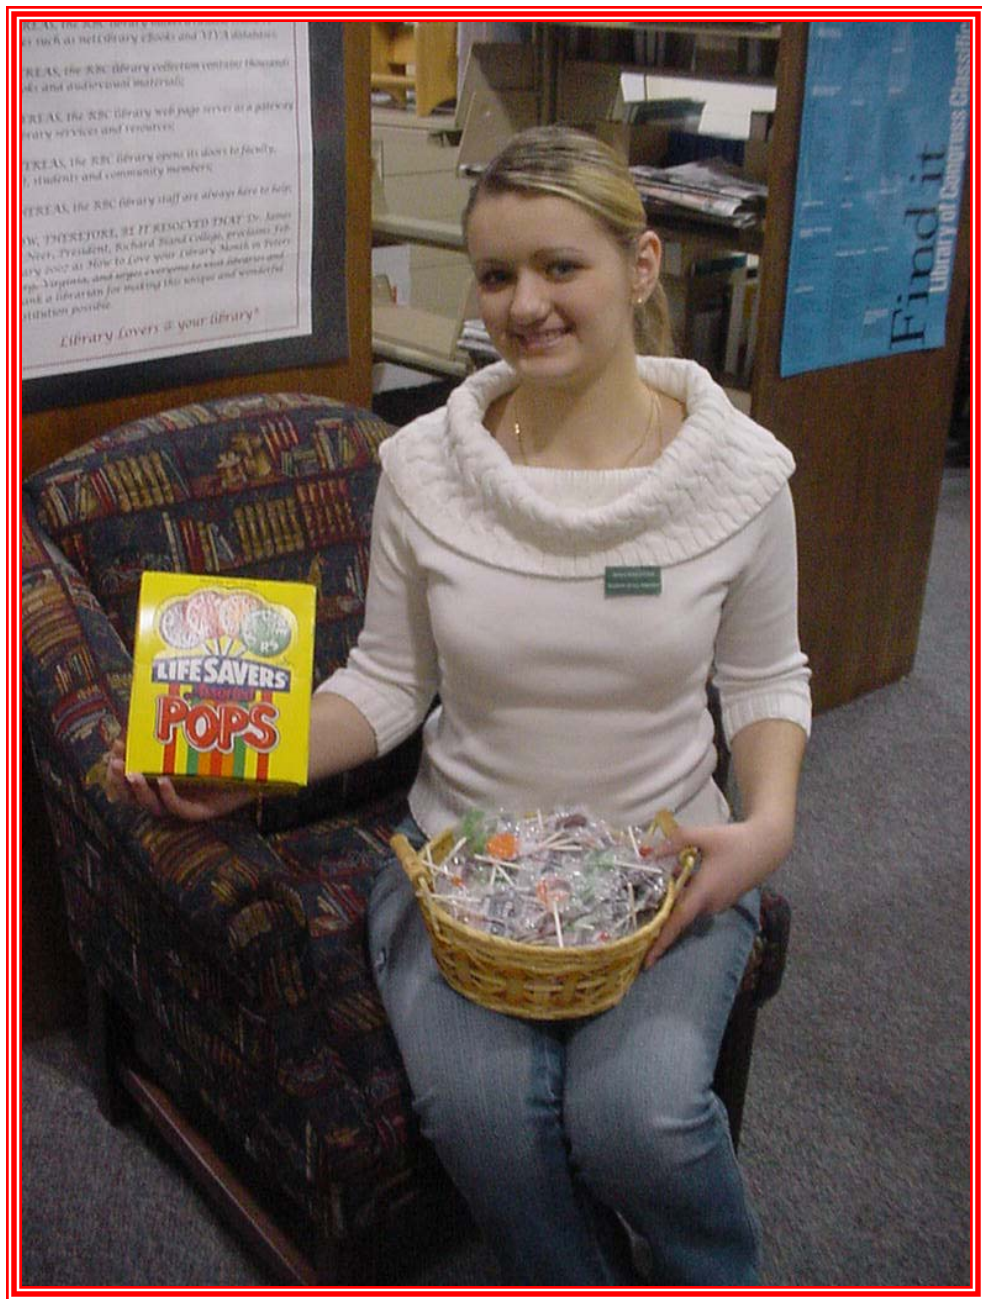

WHEREAS, the RBC library opens its doors to faculty, staff, students and community members;

WHEREAS, the RBC library staff are always here to help;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS RESOLVED THAT Dr. James McNeer, President, Richard Daniel College, proclaims February 2007 as How to Love your Library Month in Petersburg, Virginia, and urges everyone to visit libraries and thank a librarian for making this unique and wonderful institution possible.

Library Lovers @ your library®

Handle With Care

CANDY

LIFE SAVERS®

Assorted

POPS

