The policies and procedures outlined in the Richard Bland College Student Handbook are subject to change without prior notification. Students should consult the online version of the Student Handbook (www.rbc.edu) for the most up-to-date information. The online text of this document serves as the College’s official Student Handbook.

The words “rule,” “regulation,” and “policy” are interchangeable, having the same meaning as each other throughout the Policy Manual and this Student Handbook.
MISSION

To prepare students for university transfer through academically rigorous programs grounded in the liberal arts tradition of William & Mary and to expand access to college credentials through strategic partnerships, specialized programming, and scalable innovation.

VISION

As an extension of William & Mary, Richard Bland College is in the vanguard of learning-outcomes based liberal arts education for university transfer and a model for testing and applying outcomes-driven solutions in higher education.

HISTORY

Richard Bland College (“the College” or “RBC”) was established in 1960 by the General Assembly of Virginia as a branch college of The College of William & Mary. The College was named for the Virginia statesman and champion of public rights, Richard Bland. Son and grandson of successful planters, Richard Bland was educated at The College of William & Mary. From 1742 until his death in 1776, he represented the area in which the College is now located, first in the House of Burgesses, and later, with the adoption of a state constitution, in the House of Delegates. He also served as a delegate from Virginia in both the First and Second Continental Congresses. Because of his careful study of the ancient records of the colony, he was respected not only as a political leader, but also as the leading authority on Virginia’s history.

It seems fitting, therefore, that an institution of higher learning located in an area served for so many years by this distinguished Virginia patriot and scholar, should derive its name from one whom Jefferson described as “the most learned and logical man of those who took prominent lead in public affairs.”

Before the Civil War, the property on which the College is now located was a plantation owned by the Gurley family. It became an important part of the Union-occupied territory during the 1864-1865 Siege of Petersburg. The present campus was the scene of two battles during that campaign.

Shortly before the turn of the century, the Hatcher-Seward family established a dairy and cattle farm on the former Gurley property and constructed two farmhouses. Today they serve as the President’s residence and the Hospitality House.

Early 1900’s: In the early 1900s, the still-beautiful grove of pecan trees was planted. The farm was used as a work camp for about twenty conscientious objectors during World War I. The Commonwealth of Virginia authorized Central State Hospital to purchase the land in 1932 for use as the Petersburg Training School and Hospital for African-American Youth. That institution was moved in 1959, and the land, still owned by the Commonwealth, became the location for the establishment of Richard Bland College of The College of William & Mary.

Historical Leadership: Under the guidance of Colonel (Ret.) James M. Carson, the former hospital and training facility was transformed into Richard Bland College, and classes were held beginning in 1961. In the late 1960s, Ernst Hall (named for a local business leader influential in the establishment of the College) was added to the original campus. In addition, a Student Center, Library building, and a gymnasium were constructed in the early 1970s. Colonel Carson retired as the founding President of the College in 1973. The street now known as Carson Drive was named in honor of Colonel Carson.

From 1973 through 1975, Dr. Cornelius Laban, Professor of Biology, Emeritus, served as the Acting President of Richard Bland College.

In 1975, Dr. Clarence Maze succeeded Colonel Carson as Richard Bland College’s second President. During his tenure, Richard Bland College expanded its academic programs, added an Asian water garden that was designed by Dr. Maze, and expanded international programs and travel. In recognition of his service to the College, the renovated administration building was named Maze Hall upon his retirement in 1996.

In 1996, Dr. James B. McNeer succeeded Dr. Clarence Maze as Richard Bland College’s third President. Dr. McNeer oversaw the addition of the Residential Village in 2008. The Residential Village was comprised of two dormitories, Freedom Hall and Patriot Hall, which housed 250 students. A new Science and Technology Building was added in 2010, and in recognition of his service to the College, this building was named James B. McNeer Hall. Dr. McNeer retired in 2012.

In 2012, the William & Mary Board of Visitors named Dr. Debbie L. Sydow as Richard Bland College’s fourth president.
ACCREDITATION

Richard Bland College is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) to award the associate of arts and associate of science degrees. Contact the Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097 or call 404-679-4500 for questions about the accreditation of Richard Bland College.

Accreditation is the method by which the higher education community regulates itself. It provides for public confidence, institutional effectiveness, and the maintenance of standards. SACSCOC sets forth requirements for initial and continued accreditation of colleges and universities in its publication The Principles of Accreditation: Foundations for Quality Enhancement. Every ten years, each SACSCOC-accredited institution undergoes an accreditation review process. Richard Bland College completed its most recent renewal of accreditation in 2009.

Accreditation by SACSCOC means that Richard Bland College of William & Mary:

- Has a mission appropriate to higher education,
- Has resources, programs, and services sufficient to accomplish and sustain the mission, and
- Maintains clearly specified educational objectives that are consistent with its mission and appropriate to the degrees it offers, and that indicate whether it is successful in achieving its stated objectives.

SACSCOC is the regional accrediting body for degree-granting higher education institutions in 11 southern states: Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, and Virginia. SACS, founded in 1895, is a private, voluntary, nonprofit organization dedicated to the enhancement of educational quality and improvement of institutional effectiveness through peer review and institutional self-regulation.

THE CAMPUS

The Richard Bland College campus consists of over 825 acres of land with 16 buildings totaling nearly 345,000 gross square feet. The East Campus in Prince George County is notable for its signature pecan groves and the historic, white-washed buildings that supported a dairy farm until the early 1900s, and later a state hospital. Today, in addition to the Asian Water Garden and Barn Theatre, campus services and administration occupy the East Campus. The West Campus in Dinwiddie County is the center of student and academic life. In addition to the library and academic buildings, athletic and recreation facilities and residence halls are located on the West Campus. A new Equine Center opened in 2015.

A vestige of the dairy farm that previously operated on the site, the Barn Theatre is a multipurpose facility that provides a unique backdrop for lectures, live performances, and events.
Because of its versatility, abundant natural light, and flexible, open space, the Barn Theatre is a popular venue for retreats, workshops, conferences, weddings, and other sponsored events.
  • President’s House
Before the establishment of Richard Bland College in 1960, the President’s House was one of two farmhouses built by the Hatcher-Seward Family, who operated a dairy and cattle farm in the early 1900s. The house is nestled amongst the College’s pecan groves and Asian Water Garden. The two-story house was remodeled in the 1960s, and a distinct room for entertaining was added to the house in 2009. The room’s large glass windows give presidential guests an expansive, breathtaking view of the Asian Water Garden. A fountain with a statue of Hebe, carrier of the Torch of Youth in Greek Mythology, a gazebo, and guesthouse are also present on the grounds.
  • Asian Water Garden
Initiated by former President Clarence Maze Jr. in 1988, the College’s Asian Water Garden was inspired by Claude Monet’s Gardens in France. The garden was fully developed five years later in 1993 and is open to the public throughout the year. A quarter of the one-acre garden is underwater. There are two waterfalls, two Japanese-style bridges, a pier, a garden path, benches, and a cupola. Lotus, Iris, Cattails, Clover, Papyrus, Plantain, and Thalia are just a few of the water plants. Shrubs, bog plants, and beds of Daylilies, Peonies, Black-Eyed Susans, Irises, and numerous other plants surround the pond. Pecan, Japanese Maples, Cherry, Maple, and Dogwood Trees encase the garden.

I. STATEMENT OF CIVILITY & POSITIVE CAMPUS CITIZENSHIP

Civility and good citizenship on campus occur when members of the college community display mutual respect, cooperation, and other forms of positive and productive behaviors. Richard Bland College is a higher learning institution that values educational and social virtues, integrity, and growth. The College appreciates inclusivity and diversity of cultures, opinions, and learning styles. The Standards of Conduct included in this Handbook provide the community of learners at Richard Bland College with information that guides their behavior on campus. These standards are in place to foster community building and a culture of civility, and to ensure that students will be able to function in a safe, enjoyable, and mutually respectful academic setting that supports their intellectual and social development.

II. STUDENT COMPLAINT PROCESS

Richard Bland College is committed to respecting all members of the campus community. Students represent a vital component of our community. The purpose of the complaint process is to ensure all student complaints are addressed fairly and resolved promptly.

Procedure

When possible, students are encouraged to seek an informal resolution of the matter directly with the faculty or staff involved. However, if an informal approach is neither successful nor advisable, the student should use the following procedure:

A student complaint form (Appendix 4) should be submitted to the Director of Human Resources. It should contain (at a minimum) the date and time of the alleged conflict or action, the reason(s) for the complaint, a summary of the complaint, a list of other persons who may provide information, and any appropriate documentation. The student must also include the resolution or outcome he or she is seeking. The complaint must be submitted within ten (10) business days of the alleged conflict or action. Any student filing a complaint shall have at every level the right to be represented by legal counsel and to present witnesses and evidence to support the grievance without fear of reprisal. This procedure does not confer the right upon anyone to make slanderous or libelous statements (i.e. false statements).

Upon receipt of a completed form, a conference will take place with the student and a staff member from the Director of Human Resource’s office. The staff member will notify appropriate persons and request any information or documentation needed to resolve the complaint. The staff member may attempt to resolve the complaint by encouraging discussion between the student(s) and the faculty member/administrator or by taking the appropriate action to resolve the complaint.

A review of the complaint with the supervisor(s) or others in the line of supervision may be used when deemed appropriate and beneficial to the process. All relevant documentation and possible outcomes must be submitted by the student or other appropriate persons to the applicable supervisor(s) within ten (10) business days of the date the complaint is filed.

When possible, the final resolution (or a finding of “unresolved”) will be filed with the Director of Human Resources office within fifteen (15) business days of the date the complaint is filed. If there are circumstances requiring an extension of this deadline, the staff member assigned to the complaint will notify the parties involved.

If the student is not satisfied with the outcome of the complaint, a Student Complaint Committee (“Committee”) will be appointed to review the information and render a final decision. The Committee will consist of three faculty and staff representatives appointed by the Associate Dean of Residential & Student Life with the consent of the RBC President and two student members appointed by the Student Assembly President. The Committee’s decision will be final.

Note: Nothing in this procedure or in this Student Handbook is intended to circumscribe or modify the existing right of any department to do the following, provided, however, that none of these rights may be exercised in an arbitrary or capricious manner:

a. Supervise the education of students or the work of employees;
b. Maintain the efficiency of departmental operations;
c. Remove students from educational programs or employees from duties for legitimate reasons;
d. Take actions as necessary to carry out the duties of the department;
e. Determine the methods, means, and personnel by which departmental operations are to be conducted.

This process does not apply to complaints regarding discrimination, harassment, or sexual misconduct. For complaints involving student or employee discrimination, harassment, or sexual misconduct pursuant to Title IX, please refer to the RBC website at http://www.rbc.edu/why-rbc/faculty-staff/policy-manual/ for applicable policies and procedures.

c. 50% of tuition upon withdrawal after the 14th and through the 26th consecutive calendar day from the beginning of classes.

d. No refund of tuition after the 26th consecutive calendar day from the beginning of classes.

All summer schedule, intercession, late start, and any other special classes will have abbreviated refund deadlines which can be viewed on the Registrar’s website.

Additional Financial Information

a. Students who register and withdraw from the College prior to the beginning of classes will receive a full refund minus a $50 withdrawal processing fee.

b. No refund of any tuition and fees will be made to a student who has been required to withdraw by the College regardless of the date of withdrawal.

c. Students changing from 12 or more hours to fewer than 12 hours change status from full time to part time. When this occurs within the prescribed period allowed for course changes, charges are established at the semester credit hour rate for the course or courses retained. The resulting overpayment of tuition will be refunded. No refund of tuition will be made for a change of status from full time to part time occurring after the deadline for course changes, which is published in the academic calendar. http://www.rbc.edu/calendar/academic-calendar/

d. Part-time students who withdraw or who drop one or more courses will be entitled to refunds according to guidelines 1, 2, and 3 above.

e. The actual date of proper notice will be certified by the Office of the Registrar, and refunds, when applicable, will be computed based on the certified date. Refunds are not based on the last day of class attendance.

f. Pro-rata refunds to first time students attending Richard Bland College who receive Title IV financial aid will be based on Title IV requirements.

g. Withdrawal for medical or legal reasons will follow the same refund schedule as published above.

h. Housing and Board (meal) charges will be refunded according to the “Canceling Housing Agreement” section of this Student Handbook.

Student Employment Opportunities

Student employment opportunities are available through the Federal Work-Study Program and the Campus Regular Student Employment Program. These programs provide eligible students an opportunity to earn money to help offset their educational-related expenses as well as to gain work experience. Jobs are available in various offices on campus, and students are generally assigned between ten to twenty hours per week. At least part-time enrollment is required.
Unpaid Accounts
Transcripts, degrees, or any other information concerning academic records will not be released until College accounts are paid in full.

Veterans Affairs
A representative in the Financial Aid Office is available to assist veterans with their Veteran Education Benefits, and the Admissions Office is available to assist with admissions and counseling-related issues.

IV. STUDENT ACTIVITIES & LEADERSHIP

The Student Commons is the hub of student life on campus. The student commons houses the Office of Student Activities & Leadership, the Bookstore, the Community Room, and the Statesmen Café. Students can also gain access to the Library and Student Success Center from the Student Commons.

Students are encouraged to get involved in the many activities and leadership opportunities offered at Richard Bland College. Student Assembly elections are held annually for students interested in representing the student body on policy issues and improving the quality of life on campus. Student organizations are another valuable way that students can create new opportunities for community on campus. These can represent any number of interests and activities. Students interested in running for election to a Student Assembly officer position or starting a new student organization may contact the Office of Student Activities and Leadership for more information.

Events at Richard Bland College create a rich, vibrant, and inclusive community of students and staff. We host social events, annual traditions, field trips, cultural awareness activities, transfer events, military information sessions, and more. Also, students have the opportunity to attend workshops and seminar series related to topics including leadership, wellness, financial fitness, and community connections.

For students interested in getting involved in the community, there are opportunities to serve at nearby Walnut Hill Elementary School as a tutor or teacher’s aide. Please contact the Office of Student Activities and Leadership for more information.

V. HONOR CODE

Preamble: The Honor Code at Richard Bland College is a democratic system of government that is upheld by students, whose efforts are actively supported by the administrative and teaching faculty. The letter and the spirit of the College’s Honor Code promote the virtues which sustain a democratic society—such as integrity, social responsibility, and moral courage. As a branch of The College of William & Mary, which introduced the Honor System into American higher education, Richard Bland College commits itself to the perpetuation of high standards and expectations of its collegiate community. With an aim of educating individuals, the Student Conduct Board shall not discriminate in its membership or in its dealings with the accused on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, economic status, or disability.

Student’s Pledge: All applicants to Richard Bland College must sign the following pledge: I have read the Honor Code of Richard Bland College of William & Mary. I understand completely what is expected of me under this Code. I know that any act of lying, stealing, or cheating is a violation of the Honor Code and will subject me to disciplinary action, which could result in expulsion from the College. I hereby pledge, without reservation, my full support of the Honor Code.

Honor Code Violations: A student violates the Honor Code if the student engages in dishonorable conduct as defined below. All Honor Code violations will be referred to the Student Conduct Board, and if necessary, a hearing will be conducted following the Student Conduct Board Process and Procedures detailed in Paragraph XVI herein. The Honor Code will be applied reasonably in accordance with the examples below. Examples of proscribed conduct are meant to be instructive and not all-inclusive.

A. Lying: the presentation of false information with the intent to deceive. Lying includes, but is not limited to:

1. Misrepresenting oneself or one’s accomplishments for the purpose of gaining an academic advantage or an advantage in opportunities for employment or other co-curricular opportunities;
2. Falsifying College documents, including alteration or forgery; and
3. Providing false or misleading information to Student Conduct Board members or investigators during the course of an investigation or hearing of an alleged violation of the Honor Code or Student Code of Conduct or during an investigation involving discrimination, harassment, or sexual misconduct. Lying within this context may be charged as a separate offense.

B. Stealing: knowingly taking or appropriating the property of another, including property of the College, without the rightful owner’s permission and with the intent to permanently or substantially deprive the owner of the property. One does not receive rightful permission if it is induced by fraud or deception.

C. Cheating: including, but not limited to, the following acts:

1. Plagiarism: the presentation, with intent to deceive, or with disregard for proper scholarly procedures of a significant scope, of any information, ideas, or phrasing of another as if they were one’s own without giving appropriate credit to the original source.

a) One commits plagiarism when one includes the words of another without quotation or when one includes the substantive work of another without properly crediting the source with footnotes, quotation marks, or other appropriate citation.

b) A student’s intent may be inferred based on the extent and context of the improperly cited material and whether the student has provided false citation or has manipulated the original text such that a reasonable person may conclude the student did so in order to avoid detection.

c) Disregard for proper scholarly procedure that is minimal in scope may be addressed solely as an academic matter, and the instructor may determine whether an academic penalty should be applied without pursuing resolution under the Honor Code. But any intentional acts of plagiarism or disregard for the scholarly procedure of a significant scope should be treated as a violation of the Honor Code.

2. Unauthorized Assistance/Collaboration: giving unauthorized aid to another student or receiving unauthorized aid from another person on tests, quizzes, assignments, or examinations. Unauthorized assistance includes providing information to another about an assignment or examination prior to the conclusion of the administration of such exams/assignments to all related sections of the course unless permitted by the instructor.

3. Use of Unauthorized Materials: using or consulting unauthorized materials (including electronic materials) or using unauthorized equipment or devices on tests, quizzes, assignments, or examinations.

4. Unauthorized Dual Submission of Previous Academic Work: using any material portion of a paper or project to fulfill the requirements of more than one course unless the student has received prior permission to do so from the appropriate instructor(s).

5. Time Constraint Violation: intentionally commencing work or failing to end work on any examination, test, quiz, or assignment according to the time constraints imposed.

6. Directions Violation: failing to follow instructions for an assignment or examination despite knowing or having reason to know that such conduct would result in an unfair academic advantage.

For misconduct involving student or employee discrimination, harassment, or sexual misconduct pursuant to Title IX, please refer to the RBC website at http://www.rbc.edu/why-rbc/faculty-staff/policy-manual/ for applicable policies and procedures.

The Student Success Center team strives to create a one-size-fits-one, student-centered, solutions-oriented focus. Our Guidance Practitioners and Learner Mentors advocate for students and support them in developing their individual strengths with targeted interventions suited to their specific goals. The Student Success Center assists in identifying and implementing academic success programs that support progress through graduation, empowering students to understand and take control of their academic journey. Faculty advisors are assigned to each student in their second year to provide additional support regarding selecting majors, identifying transfer schools, and developing an academic and a transfer plan.

Also located on the first floor of the library, the Learning Support Center’s mission is to provide academic support to all students enrolled at Richard Bland College of William & Mary. The Learning Support Center strives to provide excellence in tutoring services by supplementing student learners with individual and group peer tutoring, thereby empowering students to cultivate the skills, strategies, and behaviors of independent and lifelong learners.

What is an Academic Coach/Tutor? An Academic Coach is a personalized meeting with a trained coach who can help to improve your skills and performance. Academic Coaches not only tutor, but they can assist in time management, goal setting, and test preparation.

A hallmark of the Richard Bland College Exceptional Student Experience involves the assignment of a Learner Mentor to each incoming student. The goal of this program is to hone the knowledge, skills, work habits, and character traits commonly associated with success in the 21st century and with the RBC Journey. Learner Mentors work with Richard Bland College students to foster their development as visionary, insightful, responsive, respectful, and resourceful citizens. Each Learner Mentor provides assistance in creating an academically sound plan of study that will lead to on-time graduation from RBC and allow for a successful transition and transfer of credits into a four-year college or university.

Counseling Services

Richard Bland College is committed to offering a variety of counseling services to assist students with their overall development and adjustment to campus. Free and confidential counseling is available for individuals or groups of students needing help with personal and academic concerns. Students may make an appointment to see a counselor in the Student Success Center (first floor of the Library) by calling (804) 862-6263. Because college life poses special challenges both inside and outside of the classroom, students often seek help with balancing their coursework, jobs, and personal lives. To facilitate their development, a counselor will meet with students to identify strategies that will help them achieve realistic goals.

Mental Health Services

Mental Health referrals are available to students whose cognitive and emotional needs are beyond the scope of the services offered on campus. Referrals are made for individuals requiring long-term specialized services or crisis intervention. The Community Agency Referral Guide is a manual that provides students with a list of hospitals, counseling services, crisis centers, and educational agencies throughout the Petersburg /Tri-Cities area. Students may access the manual online: www.rbc.edu/areas-ofstudy/my-support-team/counseling-services/.

VII. LIBRARY

The Richard Bland College Library, located in The Student Commons, supports the information and research needs of students. The Library is a comfortable, welcoming, two-story facility with seating for over 225 students. Collaborative work is encouraged on the first floor of the Library, and the second floor has been designated a quiet study area. A valid Student ID serves as your Library card. Covered drinks and packaged snacks are permitted. There are two seminar/study rooms equipped for multimedia viewing available for checkout for two hours on a first-come, first-served basis. For more information about the many services of the RBC Library, students are encouraged to stop by and meet the staff, call the Library at 804-862-6226, or visit the website: www.rbc.edu/library.

VIII. RESIDENTIAL LIVING

Bill of Rights

Each student living on campus has individual worth and will be treated with the utmost respect at all times. All students living on campus will be held accountable for the responsibilities that come with living in a residence hall. At a minimum, residents must adhere to the expectations and requirements outlined in the Student Handbook along with the additional requirements included in the housing and food service agreement. Each shall have the opportunity to engage in those physical, educational, and social pursuits that are necessary parts of his or her RBC life. Living in a residence hall is a privilege and not a right. As such, the privilege can be revoked at any time if a resident violates the Honor Code, the Code of Conduct, commits a criminal act, or violates any of the rules listed in this Student Handbook or the housing and food service agreement.

1. Noise Policy: Each resident must be respectful regarding his/her noise level as it affects other residents. More than one complaint against a resident regarding noise levels may result in disciplinary action.

2. Personal Property Policy: Residents sharing suites must be respectful of one another, including each individual’s personal property. Each resident must be considerate of each other’s living space including the actual physical living conditions of each room.

3. Safety and Wellness: Each resident can voice complaints about residence life, which may include but is not limited to noise violations, personal property damage or theft, and safety and wellness policies. If a resident desires to file a complaint or feels unsafe, he or she should contact a Residence Life Coordinator (RLC), any staff member of the Office of Residence Life, (residencelife@rbc.edu), or Campus Police.
Residential Guidelines

Richard Bland College will do everything within its power to provide a safe environment for you and your belongings; however, your room is still your responsibility. Richard Bland College is not liable for loss, damage, or theft of your personal belongings. Please keep your door locked. The Office of Residence Life strongly recommends obtaining Renter’s or Homeowner’s Insurance to cover personal belongings. Living conditions (unclean, trashy) that could adversely affect residents’ health and safety are prohibited. Please be sure to review the housing and food service agreement. The most current, published housing and food service agreement along with the Student Handbook will govern your on-campus stay at RBC.

The Board of Visitors of the College of William & Mary and the RBC President maintain authority to establish additional policies, rules, and regulations, which shall be applicable upon their effective date and operate continually unless otherwise stated. Further, RBC reserves the right to make reasonable modifications to this Student Handbook and the housing and food service agreement to ensure personal safety or protection of property, or for other reasonable purposes, provided reasonable advance notice is given. Residential students should review the housing and food service agreement terms and conditions in conjunction with the residential living portion of the Student Handbook.

Housing Criteria

On-campus housing priority is first given to currently housed, full-time students. Full-time students who live outside of a 30-mile radius from the college and who have at minimum a 3.0 cumulative GPA also receive priority. Students whose GPA falls below a 2.0 may be required to vacate the residence hall. Students on academic suspension are not authorized to live in the residence halls. Unauthorized persons are not allowed to reside in any suite or individual room. Violators will be fined and/or charged with trespassing.

Part-time Students

Housing preference is given to full-time students. Part-time students who request on-campus housing will be contacted in the event space becomes available. If full-time students drop below full-time status, they will be required to add the requisite number of courses to achieve full-time status in order to remain living in campus housing. Full-time status is 12 or more credit hours. Full-time students are permitted to request a one-time waiver of the full-time requirement if they need to drop below 12 credit hours without dropping below 9 credit hours during any given semester. Full-time students who drop below 9 credit hours will not be permitted to remain in campus housing. (The one-time waiver is only good for dropping below 12 credit hours without dropping below 9 credit hours, and can only be used once during a student’s stay at Richard Bland College.)
Mail Services

All residents living in the RBC residence halls will be assigned a mailbox. Students will be assigned new mailbox numbers at the start of each academic year. Room changes to another residence hall will result in a new mailbox. Incoming mail should be addressed as follows:

Students First and Last Name: Thomas Bland
11301 Johnson Road: 11301 Johnson Road
Residence Hall Name, Box Number: Freedom Hall, Box 361
South Prince George, VA 23805: South Prince George, VA 23805

*Mail that lacks a complete address will be returned to sender.

Maintenance

All requests for work orders should be made directly to the Office of Residence Life (ORL) in Suite 104, Freedom Hall or via email at residencelife@rbc.edu. Repairs will be made as quickly possible. The student requesting the work order has an obligation to alert the ORL in the event repairs are not made in what the student considers a reasonable amount of time. Contact the ORL immediately for one of the following emergency maintenance issues:

- sparking or smoking outlets or fixtures;
- no lighting in room;
- no water;
- leaking sprinkler head;
- inability to lock or gain access to your room;
- loss of heat;
- broken glass;
- flooding;
- buzzing smoke detector.

NOTE: the submission of a work order authorizes RBC personnel to enter your room. The cost of repairs as a result of damages will be passed along to the student(s) within the room and/or apartment or the student(s) found responsible for the damages.

Cleanliness

Residents are responsible for maintaining established standards of cleanliness and safety throughout the building. Residents are responsible for taking their personal trash from their room to the dumpster outside daily. Residents are also responsible for arranging a cleaning schedule for the common areas within their assigned suite.
• The Residence Life Coordinator (RLC) and Resident Assistants (RA) reserve the right to inspect suites and rooms a minimum of once per week for cleanliness.
• Thorough inspections are conducted before your arrival and during every hall closing – you will be required to sign a room condition report acknowledging the condition of your room upon your arrival and departure.
• It is your responsibility to notify the residence life personnel of any damages that may be present in your room upon your arrival.
• Locks should not be placed on closets without permission from the RLC. Damage to your assigned space will be billed to your student account.
• All wall hangings need to be secured with putty or masking tape only. No glue, tacks, double-sided tape, or nails are allowed. If walls are damaged, the cost of repairs and painting of the entire room will be charged to your student account.

Storage

Due to space limitations, there is no storage for personal belongings available on campus beyond the limited storage space in the assigned residential unit. Students are encouraged to plan in advance considering space limitations within the room.

Room Changes

There will be no room changes for the first thirty days after arrival. This enables the College to verify who has moved in, who has not arrived, and what spaces are available for reassignment. Signs will be posted to announce the start of the room change process. If a student moves without authorization, they are subject to removal from the residence halls and will be charged for an unauthorized move. In addition to room changes, the ORL conducts room consolidation in an effort to consolidate spaces. Students without a roommate will be moved into a consolidated room or apartment in an effort to achieve maximum occupancy. See the housing and food service agreement terms and conditions.

General Governing Policies for Residence Life

Violation of any of the rules below may result in disciplinary action, including possible interim suspension from housing or campus while awaiting a final decision from the Student Conduct Board and any subsequent appeals.
1. All residence halls are smoke-free. Smoking includes, but is not limited to, hookahs, e-cigarettes, fog machines, and all other smoking devices. It also includes the smoking of any substance. Additionally, persons may not smoke within 25 feet of any exit door on RBC property.
2. Violence in any form will not be tolerated. Violence includes verbal abuse and hurtful language directed toward the Department’s professional and student staff, and other resident and nonresident students.
3. Keep the residence hall rooms and common areas clean. Charges will be levied to applicable residents to cover the cost of extra custodial services required to remove personal possessions, to clean up trash left in rooms or to clean rooms after vacating the premises for vacations, or at the close of the school year.

4. Door-to-door soliciting and peddling are prohibited except with prior written permission from the Associate Dean of Residential & Student Life. Soliciting from or delivery to a student’s room is not permitted.

5. Solicitation in the lobby areas requires prior approval from the Associate Dean of Residential & Student Life.

6. Tampering with the fire alarm, fire extinguisher, fire exit doors or smoke detector is against state, federal, and local laws. Violators will be prosecuted criminally, and administrative sanctions will be initiated.

7. Residents are not permitted in unauthorized areas including, but not limited to, attics, maintenance rooms, boiler rooms, roofs, ledges, and storage rooms/areas.

8. Bicycles must be walked through the building and lobbies. They may not be parked in hallways, lounges, or stairwells. They may not be hung from ceilings or other RBC furnishings. Bicycles and/or equipment found in the hallways, stairwells, or lobbies will be confiscated. Tire streaks, handle bar marks, mud, debris, or other signs left by a bicycle must be cleaned or they will result in cleaning or damage charges to the individual student, suite, hallway, or entire residence hall depending on the location of the damage. Owners who fail to take proper responsibility for their bicycles may be prohibited from bringing them into the building.

9. Residents are encouraged to obtain renter’s insurance for personal property as Richard Bland College does not assume responsibility for any loss, theft, or damage to personal items.

10. Residents must have received all immunizations required by the Virginia Board of Health, and provide proof thereof, before the first day of entry into his or her assigned residence hall. See Appendix 5 for required student immunizations.

Residence Hall Safety

Residence hall staff members will be available to open the doors due to access card system failure. It is essential that you actively participate in making your residence hall a safe and secure place for you and your fellow residents to live. Carry your room key and access card with you at all times.
Students are urged to be cognizant of their safety and security needs while on and off campus. An escort service is available by contacting RBC Police. Dial (804) 863-4085. Please note the following:

1. Though RBC takes all reasonable precautions, our campus is a public area and therefore not immune to the dangers of modern society. Therefore, as RBC cannot absolutely guarantee the safety and security of the premises at all times, the College expects students to take reasonable precautions to protect themselves and their property.

2. Computerized I.D. access is provided in the residence halls for the protection of the residents. While RBC is in session, the exterior doors to the residence halls will be controlled to restrict access to residents and their guests. Access to residences by non-residents may be restricted if RBC determines that this is necessary for safety and security reasons.

3. Individual residents are the only persons authorized to use their specific ID card to access the residence halls. Allowing anyone else to use their ID card is expressly prohibited. Students who violate this policy are subject to disciplinary and/or criminal action.

4. Residents may not engage in any activity which creates a safety risk or which jeopardizes the security of the premises. Students are prohibited from propping open exterior doors for any purpose.

5. The roofs, attics, and mechanical equipment rooms of all College buildings are restricted areas and may not be accessed.

6. Individuals observed in the hall who are not residents or guests must be reported immediately to an ORL staff member or RBC Campus Police.

Room Entry/Inspection

RBC will strive to respect the privacy of its residents. A goal of the Office of Residence Life is to preserve the health and safety of its residents while maintaining an environment that facilitates safety and scholarship. At times, RBC Staff will enter a student’s room or escort non-RBC personnel to an apartment/room for maintenance concerns. Reasonable efforts shall be made to notify residents in advance. ORL staff may enter a room without prior notification if evidence exists that a violation of the student code of conduct or other residential or RBC policy is occurring or has occurred, a medical problem exists, maintenance repairs are necessary or recommended, or to recover RBC-owned property.

ORL staff members are authorized to enter apartments and rooms at least once per week to perform maintenance inspections and wellness checks. Wellness checks are designed to ensure compliance with housing rules and to ensure the apartment/room is free of maintenance issues.

Search and Seizure: College Officials, which includes Office of Residence Life staff, may conduct a visual search of a room in the event there is reasonable cause to believe that a student has used his/her room/hall for purposes that violate College policies, or federal, state or local laws.

- Administrative Searches: RBC administrator(s) designated by the President may authorize a visual search of a defined area to further the educational mission of the institution, which includes student and public safety and RBC policy enforcement. The Associate Dean of Residential & Student Life and Residence Life Coordinators (RLC) will be the principal parties responsible for these searches. Evidence secured as a result of an administrative search may be used in an RBC disciplinary proceeding and, when authorized by law, in legal proceedings.

NOTE: Administrative searches do not require a search warrant. Administrative searches will be executed by written authorization from the Associate Dean of Residential & Student Life. If campus police deem a search necessitates a search warrant, they will be the principal party conducting the search after the search warrant has been secured.

Removal from the Residence Hall

The College may terminate a student’s housing agreement and take possession of the room at any time for violation of any federal or state law or regulation or college policy or rule, or for health or administrative reasons. The student removed in this situation will not be permitted to return to his or her housing assignment or visit other residential facilities until approved by the Associate Dean of Residential & Student Life.

In accordance with Virginia Landlord & Tenant laws, the Housing and Food Service Agreement is entered into by Richard Bland College and the student in full acknowledgment that public and private higher education housing institutions in the Commonwealth of Virginia (such as Richard Bland College) with residential on-campus student housing assignments are not bound by the Virginia Landlord Tenant Laws. Among other things, Richard Bland College is not obligated to follow civil court proceedings related to removal of the student and the student’s property from the on-campus student housing assignment, but may automatically remove the student and the student’s property from on-campus housing if Richard Bland College determines that the housing and food service agreement or RBC housing rules have been violated, or the student otherwise does not qualify for student housing.

Abandoned Property: RBC will not be responsible for damage or loss of any personal property not removed within 48 hours after a student separates from RBC or after the residence halls officially close in the spring. A room cleaning charge will be assessed against any student who fails to remove his/her items within the 48-hour timeframe. RBC does not store abandoned property. Any property abandoned by a student will be owned by RBC after 48 hours, and disposed of as deemed appropriate by RBC.

Canceling Housing Agreement

Cancellation notifications must be submitted in writing to residenclife@rbc.edu or:

Richard Bland College of William & Mary
Office of Residence Life
11301 Johnson Road
South Prince George, VA 23805

The Housing & Food Service Agreement is binding; therefore, students who have not cancelled the Housing & Food Service Agreement in writing and the written cancellation has not been received by the Office of Residence Life 30 days prior to the start of each term will be bound by this Agreement.

Students who cancel their housing assignment after the cancel timeframe will be assessed charges, in accordance with the guidelines below, for the time the student is in possession of the room and forfeiture of their $150.00 housing deposit. Students are deemed to be in possession of a room when one or more of the following exist: (1) having a current housing assignment, (2) having possession of the key to the assigned room, (3) having personal belongings in the assigned room, or (4) having no completed exit form on file. Assessment charges begin on the first scheduled date of move in.

Students who submit a Room Cancellation and/or Withdrawal form must vacate the residence hall the day the form is submitted. Cancellations (which includes withdrawing from school) of the Housing and Food Service Agreement forfeits a student’s room damage deposit of $150.00.

ALL CANCELLATIONS WILL BE PROCESSED ACCORDING TO THE PROCEDURES OUTLINED BELOW:

• Students who officially withdraw or are released from the College or Housing (during any session) within the first 26 calendar days from move-in will be charged a prorated room and board fee for the number of days in the residence hall. They are NOT eligible for a refund of any deposits.

• Students who officially withdraw or are released from the College or Housing (during any session) after the first 26 calendar days from move-in will be charged the ENTIRE Room Rate for the semester and a prorated Board (meals) Rate, based on the exit date. They are NOT eligible for a refund of any deposits.
• Students who are required by the College to depart the residence hall for reasons of misconduct will not receive a refund for unused room charges; however, the board (meals) will be prorated. They are NOT eligible for a refund of any deposits.

• Students must complete an Entrance/Exit Form when checking into a Residence Hall and prior to departing the Residence Hall. The student is considered to maintain possession of the room until a completed exit form is properly received by The Office of Residence Life.

• Students exiting the residence halls during a semester, but who plan to return the next semester, must submit a new Housing and Food Service Agreement for the upcoming semester.

• Students who fail to properly turn in their key at the end of the Housing & Food Service Agreement period and/or prior to any departure will be charged the cost of changing the lock.

• When a room is permanently vacated, the residents are responsible for returning the room and its contents to its original condition. Failure to do so will result in charges to the resident(s) of the room. Items left in the room after the Office of Residence Life has determined the room is vacant shall become the property of Richard Bland College. Room cleaning charges will be applied to those students’ accounts who vacate without properly returning their room/apartment to its original condition.

Noise

The residence halls exist to support and complement the academic mission of the College. Quiet Hours and Courtesy Hours provide standards of acceptable noise levels for residents to socialize, study, and sleep. For all residents, as members of a residential community, the comfort and convenience of neighbors must be a primary consideration. Noise shall include but not be limited to music, TV, voices, video games, and activities.

Twenty-four hour Courtesy Hours are in effect in the residence halls at all times. When asked to lower the noise levels by a staff member or fellow resident, residents are expected to modify their behavior regardless of the hour, day, or night.

Quiet Hours: are in effect 9:00 p.m. through 9:00 a.m. each day. Residents should keep their doors closed when playing music or creating noise that could disturb others. The standard for acceptable noise levels during quiet hours is that noise should not be heard outside of the room or through walls. The noise generated by vacuum cleaners necessitates that their use be prohibited during quiet hours.
During finals week, Quiet Hours are in effect twenty-four hours a day, beginning at 9:00 a.m. until the last scheduled exam. Failure to observe Quiet Hours or Courtesy Hours is considered conduct infringing on others and is a violation of residence hall policy.

Amplification: Placing stereo speakers or other sound amplification devices in windows, doorways, and common areas is prohibited unless for an approved event receiving prior written approval from the ORL. Volume should be maintained at a reasonable level so as not to disturb other residents or people outside the building. This includes musical instruments and amplifiers.

Visitation

Visitors must abide by the posted visitation policies. Visitors include persons who live in other residence halls, commuter students, or persons who have no affiliation to RBC. No more than two (2) guests per resident are authorized at any given time unless prior written approval is received from the ORL. All guests must surrender a photo ID and be properly signed in by the on-duty staff member (RA, RLC, and Security). Residents are responsible for policing the behaviors of their guests. Visitors can be asked to leave campus housing at any time for violation of hall rules and regulations. Residents and guests must follow the visitation policy and abide by the Student Code of Conduct.

Visitation Procedures:

1. Visitors must present a valid ID to the on-duty staff member.
2. The resident must be with their visitor when they arrive to be signed in.
3. The on-duty staff member will sign the visitor into the visitation log book.
4. At the conclusion of visitation, all visitors are required to vacate or be held in violation of the visitation policy.
5. Visitation hours: Sunday-Thursday (10am-12am) & Friday-Saturday (10am-2am).

NOTE: Residents living in another residence hall are considered visitors and must follow the visitation process and rules.

NOTE: Visitation Hours are subject to change. See the visitation policy in ORL for the most recently approved visitation hours.

Overnight Guests

People not assigned to live in a specific apartment are considered guests and must abide by the guest policies. Overnight guests are allowed to stay overnight with prior consent of the resident’s roommate/suitmates, notification to the Residence Life Coordinator, completion of the RBC Residence Life Overnight Guest Visitation Form, and acceptance from the ORL. Residential students are permitted overnight guests during the weekday if the guest is a residential student. The deadline for such submissions is 2:00 p.m. of the requesting date. Non-residential students can only stay overnight on Friday and Saturday. All guests must present a picture ID to the hall staff before signing in as an official guest. Guests are allowed to stay no longer than three (3) consecutive days. No more than two guests per visit are authorized inside each room. Unsanctioned parties or gatherings are not authorized. Even with roommate and suitemate consent, residents may not host overnight guests for more than 10 consecutive weeks without special approval from the Associate Dean of Residential & Student Life. Violators must be reported to the ORL staff. Residents are responsible for monitoring their guest’s behavior and assuring adherence to rules. Residents whose guest fails to abide by RBC or ORL rules and regulations will be subject to disciplinary action. Residents will be held financially responsible for damages caused by their guest(s). Students must abide by the posted visitation policies. All guests must surrender a photo ID and be properly signed in by the on-duty staff member. Guests can be asked to leave campus housing at any time for violations of hall rules and regulations. Residents must review and abide by the parking policy regarding visitor parking.

The overnight guest policy is in no way intended to provide the opportunity for, or encouragement of, cohabitation. Failure to gain each apartment mates written consent on the guest form and to properly register one’s guest(s) will result in disciplinary action. Due to Fire Safety Regulations, students with overnight guests on each floor will be approved on a first-come, first-serve basis to prevent exceeding floor and or building occupancy levels.

Roommate Success Tips

COMMUNICATE
There is probably no other person in the world you will get to know as well as your roommate. Even if you bond instantly, there may be moments when your roommate’s little quirks get on your nerves. Letting things fester can turn an annoyance into misery. Communication - both talking and listening - will be the key to a great relationship.

PERSONAL BELONGINGS
Less is more. By the time you’ve managed to fit in two beds, a computer, and TV, how much room is left for clothes and a few books? There is no way you are going to duplicate all the comforts of home.

BORROWING
Rule #1: Don't. Rule #2: If you absolutely must borrow something, always ask permission first. Return it in the promised timeframe and the condition it was in when borrowed. If you damage or lose something you borrow, you are responsible for replacing it. Can’t afford to replace it? See rule #1. Nothing causes more strife between roommates and friends than borrowing - money, food, clothes, CDs, sports equipment, etc.

NEATNESS
If the law of averages works, one of you will be neat and the other messy. Here is where you learn the great art of communication and compromise. Mom doesn't live here, but you do. The neat one will have to learn to tolerate life's imperfections. The messy one, well, it's time to start picking up after yourself.

LIGHTS OUT
It's inevitable, one of you will have an 8:00 a.m. class and the other will want to study until 2:00 a.m. Work out routines for late night studying (is there a lounge?), late night returns (tiptoe and use a flashlight), and early morning classes (tiptoe out and dress in the bathroom). Everyone needs a good night's sleep.

QUIET TIME
All residence halls have quiet hours. Loud music or socializing in the hall will not be appreciated by your fellow corridor-mates and is a one-way ticket to unpopularity and possible suspension from campus housing.

IRRECONCILABLE DIFFERENCES
When the course of rooming does not run smoothly, seek guidance from your Residence Assistant first, Residence Life Coordinator second, and finally the Associate Dean of Residential & Student Life. But remember, not liking your roommate does not grant you a room change – this is college, and you will meet people from many different backgrounds.

XI. CODE OF CONDUCT PREAMBLE

The Richard Bland College community shares a commitment to achieving our educational mission, vision, and strategic goals. The William & Mary Board of Visitors and the RBC President bear ultimate responsibility and authority; however, faculty, staff, and students share a responsibility to help maintain on campus, in the classrooms, and in the residence halls, an environment that supports the pursuit of academic learning and activities, respect for others, and the opportunity for personal growth and development. The College expects students and student organizations to abide by the Code of Conduct both on and off campus. The Code of Conduct for students applies to conduct that occurs on College property, at College sponsored events and activities, and to off-campus conduct when the conduct adversely affects the College community and the pursuit of its objectives. The Code of Conduct will be applied to behavior occurring off campus on a case-by-case basis. This Code of Conduct exists to provide an environment conducive to the mission, vision, and values of the institution. Through this Code, the College seeks to guide the development of personal responsibility, respect for others, and mature behavior. The students’ observance of College regulations and policies is important, as is the observance of public laws. The Code of Virginia contains public laws governing the conduct of all citizens and also contains specific provisions relating to colleges and universities. Violations of the Code of Virginia may result in the application of the College’s Code of Conduct procedures, which may result in a student’s expulsion from RBC.

For complaints relating to student or employee discrimination, harassment, or sexual misconduct pursuant to Title IX, please refer to the RBC website at http://www.rbc.edu/why-rbc/faculty-staff/policy-manual/ for applicable policies and procedures.

XII. DISCIPLINARY STANDARDS AND PROCEDURES

By authority of the William & Mary Board of Visitors, the RBC President has delegated the responsibility and authority for overseeing enforcement of policies governing student life to the Chair of the Student Conduct Board. The policies are designed to enable the College to protect itself and its members against the conduct of those who would impair or infringe upon the disciplinary rules of the College. The policies and procedures were formulated through the process of shared governance. This fact in no way abrogates the authority granted by the Board of Visitors to the RBC President and designee(s) to determine, manage, and maintain a system of discipline and safety in the College community. The Board of Visitors and the administration may alter or modify the rules concerning student conduct and discipline at any time.

The Student Conduct Board process is authorized to make a determination as to whether a student’s conduct violates the Student Code of Conduct or the Honor Code. The applicable criterion of review is the preponderance of the evidence standard. Evidence is presented by the parties and/or witnesses called by the parties. The evidence presented may be in the form of, but is not limited to: (a) oral or written testimony from parties or witnesses; (b) affidavits and depositions; (c) police reports and memoranda; (d) properly signed court documents; and (e) other taped or written statements.

Interim Suspension

Richard Bland College may take interim measures, as necessary, to assist or protect the complainant during the investigation, to address the safety of the complainant or any member of the campus community, and to avoid retaliation. If, in the judgment of the Chief of Police, Associate Dean of Residential & Student Life, Title IX Coordinator, or the Chair of Student Conduct, the safety or well-being of any member of the campus community may be jeopardized by the presence on campus of the accused individual, any of the aforementioned individuals, in consultation with the RBC President, may provide interim remedies to address the short-term effects of harassment, discrimination, and/or retaliation and to prevent further violations. In the most grievous incidents, the decision may be made immediately by the Chief of Police or the Associate Dean of Residential & Student Life to initiate interim measures to assist or protect the College community. Richard Bland College will seek the consent of the complainant before taking interim measures to the greatest degree possible. Interim measures may include, but are not limited to, changes in classroom schedules or housing arrangement, no-contact order, bar from campus, escorts on campus, referral and coordination of counseling and health services, and modification of work or academic requirements.

The Department is staffed by certified police officers 24 hours a day, seven days a week. The Department enforces all traffic, parking, and criminal laws on campus and operates as initial emergency medical responders in medical emergencies. The Department should be the first contact for an emergency and any assistance involving the above mentioned enforcements. There are several emergency call boxes located at various sites across campus.

Contact the College Department of Campus Safety & Police @ 804-863-4085 for all fire, medical, and police emergencies. The department is located at 510 Carson Drive, next to the facilities building.

1. Parking decals will be available at the Campus Safety & Police Department once payment of tuition and fees has been received by the College.

Parking is prohibited on all campus roads at all times, at crosswalks, and all fire lanes whether marked by painting in the lane or by signage. A vehicle must be parked in one space only and in designated parking areas, with marked spaces and lanes, leaving clear access to adjacent spaces, and without blocking driving lanes or creating a hazard for other drivers. Any motor vehicle or trailer parked in violation of College parking regulations or abandoned on-campus is subject to removal and impounding at the expense of the owner or operator.

The RBC Card provides access to the cafeteria, some sporting events, the bookstore, and the library, as well as to the front door entrance to the residence halls. All cards will be deactivated at the close of each semester to ensure the residents’ safety and security. Carry your RBC Card with you at all times. There is a $20.00 fee for replacing a lost card. Please take note of the following:

Skateboard Policy:
Richard Bland College does not authorize activities that have the potential to create excessive noise or inflict damage upon College property or cause physical injury. Students are expected to use good judgment and common sense when riding bicycles, skateboards, longboards, scooters, and rollerblades on campus. Hoverboards are banned from campus due to fire hazards. The College permits the use of skateboards on the campus sidewalks only. Skateboards may not be used on the streets, campus roads, buildings, the building porches, or on the walkway between the campus and the Student Village.

Fire Safety

Richard Bland College places high importance on promoting fire safety and encouraging all students to take leadership in this area. Students will participate in regular fire drills and attend periodic fire safety programs in order to understand how to manage the risks and respond appropriately in case of emergency. Students living on campus must exercise care and caution to prevent fires. All students and visitors are expected to adhere to all Fire Safety Regulations. Fire safety equipment is installed in each building on campus. Students or guests are not permitted to tamper with fire safety equipment, including fire extinguishers, smoke detectors, sprinklers, and fire exit doors. Setting off false alarms or discharging fire extinguishers are serious violations. Students and guests are not permitted to have in campus buildings items with open flames, including, but not limited to candles, hot plates, grills, and space heaters. Residential students should review the non-permitted items list for a complete listing. The Office of Residence Life reserves the right to reject any electrical appliance that it considers as potentially hazardous to the safety of students and others. All students are expected to observe the following regulations critical to the prevention of residence hall fires:

1. The use or possession of any dangerous chemical or explosive material, such as fireworks, gun powder, gasoline, etc., is prohibited within the residence halls.
2. The integrity of all ceilings, floors, and walls must remain intact and not be disturbed. Light fixtures must have a proper globe or deflector in place. Any open bulb fixtures are a fire hazard and must be reported to ORL.
3. The possession or use of halogen lamps is prohibited.
4. The possession, lighting, or burning of candles, incense, oil lamps, gas lanterns, outdoor grills, or any device capable of producing an open or enclosed flame or odor is prohibited in all student residences.
5. Students found to be tampering with fire alarms, smoke detectors, or fire extinguishers are subject to RBC disciplinary action and legal prosecution. The same sanctions apply for calling an ambulance or firefighting apparatus without just cause.
6. Window decorations other than college furnished shades, drapes, or blinds may be used but must carry a recognized fire rating and be constructed of fire retardant material.

7. According to the International Fire Code 805.1.2, adopted as law by the Commonwealth of Virginia, no more than 10% of a residence hall room’s wall surface area may be covered by potentially flammable objects. This includes but is not limited to posters, framed pictures, photos, flags, tapestries, or any other decorative object that that is mounted on the wall. Residents in residence hall rooms that approach or surpass this 10% level may be required to remove items as necessary to comply with fire safety requirements. Additional wall coverings (e.g. paneling, wallpaper, tapestries, etc.) may not be installed by occupants. In addition, wall hangings should not come into contact with electrical outlets or come closer than 12 inches to the heating unit. Hanging any object or item from ceilings or fire sprinkler heads is prohibited.

8. Room doors, corridors, stairways, and building exits must be kept clear of obstructions at all times. Fire doors on corridors and in stairways must be kept closed at all times.

9. All residents and guests must evacuate any building in which a fire alarm sounds. Persons refusing to evacuate constitute a hazard to fire officials and will be subject to disciplinary action.

XV. SANCTIONS

Students are expected to display appropriate behavior at all times. Students who are found responsible for having violated RBC’s on- and off- campus conduct policies while enrolled at RBC will face consequences. Infractions of RBC policy can lead to a warning up to suspension or expulsion from the College.

SANCTIONS: Sanctioning is a method to provide accountability for one’s actions and educate students on how their actions affect themselves and the College community. Its goal is to increase a student’s awareness level and promote the growth of the student as an effective and productive citizen. Previous sanctions for violation of the Code of Conduct will be considered and may impact subsequent sanctioning decisions. Students who are found in violation of the Code of Conduct will face consequences through appropriate sanctioning. Sanctioning may include, but is not be limited to:

1. Written warning
2. Disciplinary probation
3. Sanction hours
4. Dismissal from the college
5. Dismissal from the residence hall
6. Restitution
7. Program development
8. Other sanctions as deemed appropriate
XVI. CONDUCT HEARINGS

Administrative Residential Hearing

The Office of Residence Life reserves the right to administratively hear minor violations of residential policies and other violations as deemed appropriate by the Associate Dean of Residential & Student Life and the Chair of the Student Conduct Board. Students will be afforded the same basic rights of notice as with Student Conduct Board hearings. The administrative residential hearing officer shall be the Residence Life Coordinator. Decisions by the administrative hearing officer (Residence Life Coordinator) may be appealed to the Associate Dean of Residential & Student Life. Decisions at that level are final. Violations of the code of conduct that involve drugs, weapons, or fighting are required to follow the Student Conduct Board hearing process.

The Student Conduct Board

The Student Conduct Board upholds the College’s “Code of Conduct” and Honor Code to provide an environment conducive to the mission, vision, and values of the institution through the resolution of student conduct incidents and education.

1. Student Conduct Board Composition: The Student Conduct Board shall be comprised of seven members determined as follows: Three RBC students approved by majority vote of the Student Assembly, two faculty members approved by majority vote of the Faculty Assembly, and two administrators approved by majority vote of the Executive Council. All seven members chosen must also be approved by the RBC President. There must be at least three members of the Board present at a hearing, and of those three, one member must be a faculty member, one must be a student, and one must be an administrator. The Chair of the Student Conduct Board, a non-voting member, will be designated by the RBC President. To help ensure neutrality, the Chair of the Student Conduct Board shall conduct regular training to maintain a current listing of eligible board members. Board members cannot be approved without having received the Student Conduct Board Training.

2. Chair responsibilities: the Chair is responsible for the overall performance and flow of the Student Conduct Board, which includes the following:

a) Review alleged misconduct and determine if a hearing is needed.
b) Write the respondent a notification letter.
c) Inform board members about the date, time, and location of the hearing.
d) Serve as spokesperson for the Student Conduct Board.
e) Ensure all procedures are followed by the Board.
f) Write the decision letter.

\textit{g)} Follow-up on the completion of sanctions.

3. \textbf{Student Conduct Board Member Duties and Responsibilities}: All Board members are responsible for following hearing procedures and ensuring that all parties involved are treated fairly and provided due process. The following are to occur:

a) Arrive on time and be present during the entire hearing.

b) Review all materials thoroughly.

c) Ask open-ended questions.

d) Be open-minded and willing to consider all the information being presented.

e) Listen carefully to each person and withhold all judgment until all facts and information have been presented and considered.

f) Allow for thorough discussion before an additional question is asked.

g) Before making a decision, review hearing information and compare to the Code of Conduct, or Honor Code for alleged Honor Code violations, to verify a violation occurred.

h) Be open, creative, and thorough when determining sanctions.

i) Refrain from discussing individual decisions with other board members.

\textbf{Student Conduct Board Procedures:}

\textbf{Student Conduct Board Process and Procedures for On-Campus Misconduct}

When determining if a Code of Conduct or Honor Code violation has occurred, the \textit{“preponderance of the evidence” standard will be used. This standard} requires a majority of the Board members to decide that the greater weight of the evidence indicates that the Responding Party is responsible regarding the allegations. This preponderance is based on the more convincing evidence and its probable truth or accuracy, and not on the amount of evidence.

\textbf{A. Rights and Duties of the Respondent}

1. \textbf{Right to Freedom from Harassment and Retaliation}. The right to be free from harassment, intimidation, and coercion, including attempts to change testimony. Any violations of this right may be considered a serious violation of the Student Code of Conduct.

2. \textbf{Right to Pre-hearing Notice}.
a. The right to preliminary written notice of the nature of the allegations received from the Reporting Party as soon as practical and not less than 72 hours in advance of a hearing.
b. The right to subsequent written notice of the formal charges and of the date, time, and location of any hearing no fewer than 72 hours in advance of the hearing.
c. If a student does not appear after being properly notified of the date, time, and location of the hearing, the Student Conduct Board may proceed with the hearing in the absence of the student.

3. Right to Know the Evidence to be Presented. The Respondent will have the opportunity to inspect, review, and request copies of all evidence to be considered by the hearing panel at least 48 hours prior to the hearing. The Respondent may be required to sign an agreement that he/she will not make copies of or disseminate the work product of an instructor or other materials containing information about other students that are protected under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act and must return the materials immediately after the hearing. The Respondent will be instructed that failure to abide by the agreement may be considered a serious violation of the Student Code of Conduct.

4. Right to Assistance.
   a. The right to the presence of a silent supporter (who may be legal counsel) and one immediate family member to attend the hearing. Neither the silent supporter nor the family member may participate in the hearing in any manner.

5. Right to Confidentiality. The Respondent has the right to confidentiality regarding all matters related to the alleged violations except from those who have a legitimate educational interest in the information under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act. Violations of that right may be considered an infraction of the Code of Conduct.

6. Right to Receive Post-hearing Notification. The right to be notified of the outcome of the hearing following post-hearing review by the Office of the Dean of Residential & Student Life in coordination with the Chair of the Student Code of Conduct Board within five working days of the end of the hearing.

7. Rights within the Hearing.
   a. The right to the presumption of innocence until the panel has found the student in violation by a preponderance of the evidence.
b. The right to a separate hearing on each charge if multiple unrelated charges have been filed.

c. The right to request a separate hearing if two or more students are charged with the same offense.

d. The right to present evidence relevant to the charges and, if necessary, possible sanctions and to request the presence of necessary witnesses. The number of witnesses may be limited by the Chair if the Chair finds the proposed testimony will duplicate that of the other witnesses or the proposed testimony is immaterial. The Respondent may submit written statements from witnesses in lieu of personal appearances.

e. The right to ask relevant question of all witnesses.

f. The right to a closed hearing, and the right to request an open hearing.

8. Right to be Free from Conflict of Interest.

   a. The right to have the Reporting Party or witnesses barred from participating in the matter in any other capacity.

   b. The right to request that a Board member be removed from his/her case on the grounds of possible bias or conflict of interest. The Respondent must provide reasons as to why the Board member in question is unable to hear the case fairly, and the decision whether to grant the request is left to the Chair, who, where such a request is rejected, will provide a written explanation.

9. Right to Prepare for Appeal. The right to review the documentary evidence and recording in preparation for an appeal. The review must occur in the presence of a member of the Associate Dean of Residential & Student Life’s staff.

10. Right to Waive any Rights. The Respondent has the right to sign a knowing and voluntary waiver of any of the rights accorded.

11. Duty to Cooperate. The Respondent will reasonably cooperate with the investigation and, if necessary, hearing. This duty includes answering questions fully and honestly and presenting requested information; however, the Respondent has the right not to answer questions if he/she is facing charges in criminal court for the same or similar behavior. Lying in the course of an investigation or hearing may be considered a separate violation of the Student Code of Conduct. This duty also includes complying promptly with requests for meetings or information.
B. Rights and Duties of the Reporting Party

1. Right to Freedom from Harassment and Retaliation. The right to be free from harassment, intimidation, and coercion, including attempts to change testimony. Any violations of this right may be considered a serious violation of the Student Code of Conduct.

2. Duty to Preserve Confidentiality. The Reporting Party will keep all matters regarding the conduct or honor case confidential except from those who have a legitimate educational interest in the information under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act.

3. Right to Know the Outcome of the Case. Faculty reporters will have the right to know the outcome of the case, both following the hearing, and if applicable, the appeals process. This right does not extend to all case materials. Due to the protections afforded student records, this provision does not extend to those who do not have a legitimate educational interest in receiving the information.

4. Right to Know Grounds for Dismissal of Case. Faculty reporters will have the right to know the basis for dismissal of a particular case, regardless of the stage at which the case is dismissed, if such knowledge serves a legitimate educational purpose.

5. Right to Request Student not Participate in End of Semester Evaluations. A faculty member who reports a student for a potential violation of the Honor Code or Code of Conduct will have the right to request that the student be excluded from conducting a formal end of semester evaluation.

6. Duty to Cooperate. The Reporting Party will cooperate reasonably with the investigation and, if necessary, hearing. This duty includes answering questions fully and honestly and presenting requested information and complying promptly with requests for meetings or information.

C. Rights and Duties of Witnesses

1. Right to Freedom from Harassment and Retaliation. The right to be free from harassment, intimidation, and coercion, including attempts to change testimony. Any violation of this right may be considered a serious violation of the Student Code of Conduct.

2. Duty to Preserve Confidentiality. Witnesses will keep all matters regarding the case confidential.

3. Duty to Cooperate. Student witnesses will reasonably cooperate with the investigation and, if necessary, hearing. This duty includes answering questions fully and honestly and presenting requested information; however, the witness has the right not to answer questions if he/she is facing charges in criminal court for the same or similar behavior. Lying in the course of an investigation or hearing may be considered a separate violation of the Honor Code. This duty also includes complying promptly with requests for meetings or information.

Student Conduct Board Appeal Process: If the Respondent wishes to appeal the decision of the Student Conduct Board, he/she must submit an official letter of appeal to the appellate authority, the Dean of Finance and Administration, within five working days of receiving the Board’s notice on the hearing decision and sanction(s). The basis for an appeal will be limited to particular criteria as follows:

a. Whether the hearing process was conducted fairly in accordance with RBC policies and procedures.
b. Whether the hearing decision was based on sufficient facts.
c. Whether the sanctions imposed were appropriate.
d. To consider new information that is sufficient to alter the decision.
e. New information and/or facts that were not known to the Respondent at the time of the original hearing.

If one or more of the criteria is met, the appeal will be granted. The Dean of Finance and Administration (“appellate authority”) will provide to the Respondent a written decision within thirty days of receiving the appeal either denying the appeal or granting the appeal and remanding the case back to the Board for a new hearing. In either case, the appellate authority will provide the basis for the decision. If remanded, the Respondent will have another hearing based solely on the applicable appeal criteria found by the appellate authority. The hearing will be conducted in accordance with the Student Conduct Board Process and Procedures for On-Campus Misconduct.

1. Off-Campus Student Misconduct Process: A student’s off-campus misconduct and/or actions will be reviewed by the Chair of the Student Conduct Board on a case-by-case basis. A student’s misconduct off-campus that results in a negative reflection on the mission, vision, and values of the institution or is a criminal violation that could constitute a threat to the safety of the campus community would be areas of misconduct that could result in a Student Conduct Board hearing. It is necessary that Richard Bland College review off-campus misconduct as the College has a genuine interest in the character of its students and believes that a student’s off-campus behavior reflects his/her ability to be part of an academic community. The Student Conduct Board Process and Procedures for On-Campus Misconduct, Hearing Process, and Appeal Process will be followed for a student whose off-campus misconduct warrants a Student Conduct Board hearing.

2. Postponement of Hearings: A Respondent may request one postponement of a hearing by contacting the Student Conduct Board Chair (or the designated hearing officer) at least 24 hours prior to the scheduled hearing. Postponement will be allowed only under the following conditions:
   a. The Respondent has a class conflict;
   b. The Respondent is unable to produce necessary witnesses on his/her behalf on the scheduled date of the hearing;
   c. The Respondent has a family emergency;
   d. The Respondent is too ill to attend the hearing;
   e. The consultant/counsel to the Respondent is unable to attend because of illness, emergency, or legal court appearance; or
   f. The Respondent cannot attend because of a religious holiday.

The Student Conduct Board may require written verification of the reason claimed from the affected witness/witnesses, consultant/counsel, family member(s), or a healthcare provider as appropriate.

3. Student Removal from Campus:
   Students whose on- or off-campus actions and/or presence on campus poses a continuing danger to persons or property or an ongoing threat of disrupting the academic process may be immediately removed from the College. A notice and hearing should follow as soon as practicable.

4. Board Member Ethics and Confidentiality:
   a. Information regarding a hearing or sanctioning status must not to be discussed outside of the Board.
   b. The misconduct of any respondent will not be disclosed or discussed outside the hearing.
   c. No information given in confidence in a hearing will be discussed outside the hearing.
   d. When members of the board are speaking with a respondent, the members should refrain from making accusations or statements which cannot be supported.
   e. A board member will not participate in a hearing where he/she feels unable to be fair or impartial.
f. All decisions of the board should be supported by all members of the panel once a vote has been administered and a final decision has been determined.
g. Any failure of the requirements above may result in disciplinary action.

A student identified as violating any of the following policies may be immediately suspended from the residence halls or College campus pending the appropriate hearing. The Chair of the Student Conduct Board, in conjunction with the Associate Dean of Residential & Student Life and the Chief of Police shall determine if the student may continue to reside on campus and attend classes throughout the appeals process (until all appeals have been exhausted). This decision is based on the severity of the incident. The student will not be allowed to return to campus if found in violation as charged. It is not necessary to wait for the disposition of legal action related to a criminal offense for the above action to occur.

Any violation of these policies requiring arrest or the issuance of a summons may be carried out simultaneously with the above action. It is not necessary to wait for the completion of the RBC process to arrest the student or to issue the student a summons. All violations falling under these policies are heard by the appropriate administrator(s) on campus.

Richard Bland College has a strict policy for the following violations. An immediate suspension may be imposed on students who are suspected of being directly or indirectly involved with any of the incidences below.

1. Violence to Persons - Engaging in any form of physical violence directed toward another person or group of people, except when such a response constitutes legitimate self-defense.

2. Sexual Misconduct - Coerced sexual intercourse (e.g. rape, date-rape, attempted rape, sodomy, or other sexual acts or misconduct), or when the victim is incapable of consent by reason of age, mental incapacity (including when the person is under the influence of drugs or alcohol and is incapable of giving consent), or physical helplessness.

   a. All students, faculty, and staff of Richard Bland College are required to complete Title IX training annually.
   b. For misconduct involving student or employee discrimination, harassment, or sexual misconduct pursuant to Title IX, please refer to the RBC website at http://www.rbc.edu/why-rbc/faculty-staff/policy-manual/ for applicable policies and procedures.

4. Possession/use of a weapon(s) – using, possessing, or threatening to use a weapon or any object as a weapon.

5. Continual violations of the College’s Student Code of Conduct or Honor Code.

6. Other inappropriate or threatening actions that disturb the academic and/or living environment of another student or a group of students.

Process for Aforementioned Cases

1. If the violation requires immediate attention, please call the Richard Bland College Department of Campus Safety and Police at (804) 863-4085 and they will call the Chair of the Student Conduct Board or Associate Dean of Residential & Student Life if appropriate.

2. If the violation is egregious enough to warrant arrest, the accused may be removed from housing and/or campus until the Student Conduct Hearing is convened and the Student Conduct Board submits their findings.

3. A findings report is submitted to the Chair of the student Conduct Board, the Associate Dean of Residential & Student Life, and the Chief of Police.

4. The accused is notified through a pre-hearing process that the incident in which he/she has been allegedly involved has been reported. The notification includes the hearing date, time, and location of the hearing.

5. The accused completes a pre-hearing notification form.

6. If the individual admits he/she is responsible, sanctions will be administered.
APPENDIX 1: DRUG AND ALCOHOL POLICY

In keeping with the Federal Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendments of 1989, which require that all College students receive annual notice of the laws regarding alcohol and other drug use, the following information is offered:

Members of the College community enjoy a high degree of personal freedom, guaranteed by the United States, the Commonwealth of Virginia, and the Richard Bland College's Statement of Rights and Responsibilities. That freedom exists within the context of local, state, and federal law and the obligations imposed by College regulations. The Student Handbook is the official document describing College policy for student behavior, the student discipline system of Richard Bland College of William & Mary, and sanctions for violation of College policy.

- Richard Bland College clearly prohibits the use and distribution of illicit drugs and the abuse of alcohol.
- Violations of local, state, or federal law also constitute violation of College regulations.
- When a student is charged with a violation of law, it is the practice of the College to initiate its own disciplinary proceedings without awaiting court action. Behavior off-campus is subject to disciplinary action.

Alcohol Policy and Sanctions

All students of the College and their guests and all organizations must observe Virginia law as it pertains to the purchase and consumption of alcoholic beverages. Virginia law specifically states that persons under the age of 21 may not purchase, possess, or consume any type of alcoholic beverages. The sanctions for violation of this regulation shall range from warning to dismissal and will usually include alcohol education or treatment.

Drug Policy and Sanctions

For the purpose of these regulations, drugs are defined as including marijuana, hashish, amphetamines, LSD compounds, mescaline, psilocybin, DMT, narcotics, opiates, and other hallucinogens including Spice, K2, and synthetic marijuana, except when taken under a physician's prescription in accordance with law.

College regulations, in conformity with federal and state statutes governing drug use, provide the following:

- Manufacturing or providing drugs to others is prohibited. The penalty for violation of this regulation shall range from disciplinary probation to dismissal from the College.
- Possession or consumption of drugs is also prohibited. Possession of drug paraphernalia is prohibited. The penalty for violation of this regulation ordinarily shall range from probation to dismissal.
I. Legal Sanctions

Members of the Richard Bland College community should be aware of legal penalties applied for conviction in cases of drug and/or alcohol abuse. An offense is classified in the Code of Virginia as a misdemeanor or a felony, depending upon the type and the amount of the substance(s) involved.

Alcohol

Virginia's Alcohol Beverage Control Act contains a variety of provisions governing the possession, use, and consumption of alcoholic beverages. The Act applies to all students and employees of this institution. As required by the Federal Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendments of 1989, the pertinent laws, and sanctions for violations, are summarized below:

1. It is unlawful for any person under age 21 to purchase or possess any alcoholic beverage. Violation of the law exposes the violator to a misdemeanor conviction for which the punishment is confinement in jail for up to twelve months and a fine up to $2,500, either or both. Additionally, such person's Virginia driver's license may be suspended for a period of not more than one year.

2. It is unlawful for any person to sell alcoholic beverages to persons under the age of 21 years of age. Violation of the law exposes the violator to a misdemeanor conviction for which the punishment is confinement in jail for up to twelve months and a fine up to $2,500, either or both.

3. It is unlawful for any person to purchase alcoholic beverages for another when, at the time of the purchase, he knows or has reason to know that the person for whom the alcohol is purchased is under the legal drinking age. The criminal sanction for violation of the law is the same as #2 above.

4. It is unlawful for any person to consume alcoholic beverages in unlicensed public places. Violating the law, upon conviction, exposes the violator to a misdemeanor conviction for which the punishment is a fine up to $250.

Controlled Substances and Illicit Drugs

The unlawful possession, distribution, and use of controlled substances and illicit drugs, as defined by the Virginia Drug Control Act, are prohibited in Virginia. Controlled substances are classified under the Act into "schedules," ranging from Schedule I through Schedule VI, as defined in sections 54.1-3446 through 54.1-3456 of the Code of Virginia (1950), as amended.

As required by the Federal Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendments of 1989, the pertinent laws, including sanctions for their violation, are summarized below.

1. Possession of a controlled substance classified in Schedules I or II of the Drug Control Act, upon conviction, exposes the violator to a felony conviction for which the punishment is a term of imprisonment of ranging from one to ten years, or in the discretion of the jury of the court trying the case without a jury, confinement in jail for up to twelve months and a fine up to $2,500, either or both.

2. Possession of a controlled substance classified in Schedule III of the Drug Control Act, upon conviction, exposes the violator to a misdemeanor conviction for which the punishment is confinement in jail for up to twelve months and a fine up to $2,500, either or both.

3. Possession of a controlled substance classified in Schedule IV of the Drug Control Act, upon conviction, exposes the violator to a misdemeanor conviction for which the punishment is confinement in jail for up to six months and a fine up to $1,000, either or both.

4. Possession of a controlled substance classified in Schedule V of the Drug Control Act, upon conviction, exposes the violator to a misdemeanor conviction for which the punishment is a fine up to $500.

5. Possession of a controlled substance classified in Schedule VI of the Drug Control Act, upon conviction, exposes the violator to a misdemeanor conviction for which the punishment is a fine up to $250.

6. Possession of a controlled substance classified in Schedule I or II of the Drug Control Act with the intent to sell or otherwise distribute, upon conviction, exposes the violator to a felony conviction for which the punishment is imprisonment from five to forty years and a fine up to $500,000. Upon a second conviction, the violator must be imprisoned for not less than five years but may suffer life imprisonment, and fined up to $500,000.

7. Possession of a controlled substance classified in Schedules III, IV, or V of the Drug Control Act with the intent to sell or otherwise distribute, upon conviction, exposes the violator to a misdemeanor conviction for which the punishment is confinement in jail for up to one year and a fine up to $2,500, either or both.

8. Possession of marijuana, upon conviction, exposes the violator to a misdemeanor conviction for which the punishment is confinement in jail for up to thirty days and a fine up to $500, either or both. Upon a second conviction, punishment is confinement in jail for up to one year and a fine up to $2,500, either or both.

9. Possession of less than one-half ounce of marijuana with intent to sell or otherwise distribute, upon conviction, exposes the violator to a misdemeanor conviction for which the punishment is confinement in jail for up to one year and a fine up to $2,500, either or both. If the amount of marijuana involved is more than one-half ounce to five pounds, the crime is a felony with a sanction of imprisonment from one to ten years, or in the discretion of the jury or the court trying the case without a jury, confinement in jail for up to one year and a fine up to $2,500, either or both. If the amount of marijuana involved is more than five pounds, the crime is a felony with a sanction of imprisonment from five to thirty years.
II. Risks

Richard Bland College is dedicated to the education of students and employees about risks associated with the abuse of alcohol and other drugs. Descriptions of some of these health risks are offered below. In addition, behavioral difficulties at work or in school, in relationships, and with the law can be linked to the abuse of alcohol and other drugs.

Effects of Alcohol

Alcohol consumption causes a number of marked changes in behavior. Even low doses significantly impair the judgment and coordination required to drive a car or walk home safely. Low to moderate doses of alcohol also are associated with increased incidence of a variety of aggressive acts, including sexual assault, vandalism, and fighting. Moderate to high doses of alcohol cause marked impairments in higher mental functions, severely altering a person's ability to learn, memorize, and perform academically, sometimes for weeks after the drinking occurrence. Very high doses cause respiratory depression and death. If combined with other depressants of the central nervous system, much lower doses of alcohol will produce the effects just described.

Repeated use of alcohol can lead to impairment, high tolerance, and dependence. Sudden cessation of alcohol intake is likely to produce withdrawal symptoms, including severe anxiety, tremors, hallucinations, and convulsions. Alcohol withdrawal can be life-threatening. Long-term consumption of large quantities of alcohol, particularly when combined with poor nutrition, can also lead to permanent damage to vital organs such as the brain and liver.

Mothers who drink alcohol during pregnancy may give birth to infants with fetal alcohol syndrome. These infants often have irreversible physical abnormalities and mental retardation. Research indicates that children of alcoholic parents have a greater risk of becoming alcoholics.

APPENDIX 3: DEFINITIONS

The terms “Code of Conduct”, “Student Code of Conduct”, and “Standard Code of Conduct” are used interchangeably.

2. “Student” includes all persons taking courses at the College, either full-time or part-time, pursuing undergraduate degrees or non-degree seeking students, including dual enrollment. Persons who withdraw after allegedly violating the Standards of Conduct, who are not officially enrolled for a particular term but who have a continuing relationship with the College, or who have applied for admission to the College are considered “students.” These Standards of Conduct apply at all College locations.
3. “Faculty member” means any person hired by the College to conduct classroom or teaching activities or who is otherwise considered by the College to be a member of its faculty.
4. “College official” includes any person employed by the College performing assigned administrative or professional responsibilities.
5. “Member of the College community” includes any person who is a student, faculty member, administrator, or any other person employed by the College. The President or designee will determine a person’s status in any particular situation.
6. “College property” includes all land, buildings, facilities, and other property in the possession of or owned, used, leased, licensed, or controlled by the College (including adjacent streets and sidewalks).
7. “Organization” means any number of persons who have complied with the formal requirements for College recognition.
8. “Student Conduct Board” means any person or persons authorized by the President to determine whether a student has violated the Standards of Conduct or Honor Code and to impose sanctions when a violation has been determined.
9. “Will” and “Shall” are used in the imperative sense.
10. “May” is used in the permissive sense.
11. An “attempt” is any act beyond mere preparation carried out with the intent to engage in conduct that violates College policies. Attempted violations may be sanctioned in the same manner as completed violations.
12. “A preponderance standard, preponderance of the evidence, or preponderance of the facts” exists when a reasonable person, after a careful balancing of available information, would conclude a violation has occurred and the student/organization charged is responsible for the violation.
13. “Policy” means any written regulations of the College as found in, but not limited to, the Student Handbook, Residence Life Housing Agreement, the College website, Computer Use Policy, and College Catalog.
14. “Reporting Party” means any person who submits a charge alleging that a student violated the Standards of Conduct or Honor Code.
15. “Respondent” means any student or student organization alleged to have violated the Standards of Conduct or Honor Code.

16. “Working days” means any day that the College is open for business exclusive of weekends or official holidays.

17. “Consultant/Counsel” is the person a respondent may bring to a hearing for consultation or from whom the respondent may seek advice about information provided or questions asked during a hearing. This person could be an attorney if the respondent is facing criminal/civil action outside of the institution’s hearing for the purpose of advice on questions that may be self-incriminating. This person is not to argue, advocate, or present information on behalf of the respondent but only serves to help the respondent feel comfortable and to provide advice on how to behave during a hearing.

18. Campus police means sworn personnel within the Department of Campus Safety & Police.
