Recruitment of Students

Under this agreement, Pfeiffer University and Richard Bland College will join in a collaborative effort to facilitate the transfer of students from associate's degree programs to these Pfeiffer University programs. Pfeiffer University will be invited to participate in on campus transfer recruitment events sponsored by RBC and upon request, will be provided with graduate contact data (mailing address of record) on an annual basis. Pfeiffer will also be listed as a transfer agreement institution on RBC's website and other relevant propaganda.

Admission to Pfeiffer University

Criteria and procedures for admission to Pfeiffer can be found in the Graduate and Adult Studies Catalog on the Pfeiffer website at www.pfeiffer.edu

Admission to the Pfeiffer University's programs will be based on demonstration of the following:

- An earned AA or AAS degree with a minimum overall 2.5 GPA
- Submission of completed application (fee waived)
- Official transcripts from all college institutions attended
- Financial Aid transcripts from all previous colleges attended

Agreement: Pfeiffer University and Richard Bland College

All coursework must have a grade of a C or higher to be eligible for transfer. Graduates of AA, AS and AAS programs who transfer to Pfeiffer under this agreement will matriculate with upper-class standing (Junior). However, graduates may be required to complete any unfulfilled Pfeiffer University general education requirements or specific requirements for a BA/BS degree.
