

Conduct Flow Chart

Conduct issue reported

Issue presented to Student Conduct Coordinator (SCC)

- If academic or a police report, SCC enters in Conduct Coordinator (CoCo) database
- If residential, the Office of Residence Life enters in CoCo, which triggers an email to the SCC

After consultation with the Office of Campus Safety & Police, Threat Assessment Team, and/or faculty member involved, if applicable, SCC determines the next step.

Option A

Conference

No violation

- If incident in the classroom, instructor determines whether a second conference is needed since they already had one with the student.
- If residential student, meeting with Residence Life Coordinator
- If non-residential student, meeting with Learner Mentor

Option B

Administrative Hearing

Violation (minimal risk)

- All hearings conducted by SCC or Assistant Director of Residence Life
- Sanction(s) assigned

Option C

Conduct Board

Violation (significant)

- Chaired by Donald Payton
- Pre-hearing occurs w/ Payton
- Conduct Board convenes to hear case, determine responsibility, and recommend sanction(s)
- Chair recommends sanction(s) to Director of Student Success

Sanction Appeals

- Sent to Laschresce Aird (if OOTO, Tyler Hart)

For each step, an update is made in CoCo.

Students with questions and/or concerns may contact the SCC.

Immediate suspensions are determined by the RBC Chief of Police and designated personnel and confirmed by the President.
