

Kevin Massengill serves as County Administrator of Dinwiddie County, where he has led the executive operations of county government since 2006. In this role, he oversees daily county administration, advises the Board of Supervisors on policy and strategic priorities, and ensures compliance with federal, state, and local law. His leadership has focused on economic development, infrastructure investment, and delivery of core public services.

Mr. Massengill has extensive regional governance experience and serves in leadership roles on multiple boards and authorities, including regional jail, water, tourism, and planning entities.

Mr. Massengill earned a Bachelor's Degree in Urban Studies from Virginia Commonwealth University and an Associate's Degree from Richard Bland College. He is also a graduate of the Virginia Executive Institute.